

BSO SESSIONS

Episode 17: Spirit of Brazil (Espírito Brasileiro)

Release Date: Wednesday, March 3 at 8 PM
On-demand access available through June 2021.

Repertoire

VILLA-LOBOS Bachianas Brasileiras No. 9
STRAUSS (arr. Assad) “Dance of the Seven Veils” from Salome
DE ABREU (arr. Hersh) “Tico-Tico no fubá”
SANTORO Ponteio
GOMES Serenata para cordas, “O Burrico de Pau”, IV. Vivace
JOBIM (arr. Ligon) “Desafinado”

Stream at BSOmusic.org/OffStage for $10

About the Episode

Villa-Lobos’ Bachianas Brasileiras No. 9 opens the program, followed by an intoxicating arrangement of Strauss’ “Dance of the Seven Veils” by Brazilian-American composer Clarice Assad. Santoro’s calming Ponteio is paired with Billboard hits like “Tico-Tico no fubá” and “Desafinado.” Brazilian conductors Daniel Lima and Juliano Aniceto, both students of Marin Alsop, grace the stage for this episode that celebrates the music of Brazil.

Conductors

Nicholas Hersh
Associate Conductor

Jonathan Rush
Assistant Conductor

Juliano Aniceto
Guest Conductor

Daniel Lima
Guest Conductor

The appearance of guest conductors Juliano Aniceto and Daniel Lima is made possible by the Alvin and Fanny B. Thalheimer Guest Artist Fund.